

Soccer Chaplains United Application

Soccer Chaplains United

Thank you for your interest in applying to become part of Soccer Chaplains United. We are united by a common code and a shared vision to provide spiritual care, wise counsel, and meaningful service for soccer.

Jesus Christ is central to who we are as an organization. Our chaplains work together to provide care for the whole person who is involved in the sport of soccer. Because of our unique place of service, we also look to strengthen the connection between communities of faith and soccer.

Our chaplains adhere to a common code of practice and a statement of faith. This is a code of professional conduct and practice that informs our methods of providing spiritual care to those within the soccer community. Please review the code of conduct and statement of faith before applying.

Soccer Chaplains United is a 501(c)3 organization under the umbrella of Cross Training Ministries. Donations are tax-deductible. Those working with Soccer Chaplains United are considered volunteers or independent contractors depending on membership level.

Please consider the typical, following qualifications for our chaplains before applying, if you meet these requirements, please consider joining us.
